THE GASSERHOF

MODERN DESIGN IN A TRADITIONAL ENVIRONMENT

Opened over a hundred years ago as a traditional inn, Gasserhof has become a modern hotel with an exclusive and sophisticated design. The blending of modern and classic design embodies the atmosphere as well as the typical family mood that you feel from the very start. Clean lines, carefully chosen nuances, refined details and high quality natural materials such as wood, wool and linen exemplify a simple alpine style which, based on contemporary trends, highlights the typical South Tyrolean taste. One thing is certain: at Gasserhof it is easy to feel good, relax and have fun!

HOSPITALITY AS A TRADITION

Gasserhof is one of the most traditional hotels in the entire Valle Isarco. In 1910 the name "Osteria Gasser" appears for the first time. Since then, the goal has never changed: satisfying and exceeding the wishes of their guests, who are always welcomed with sincere and spontaneous warmth.

NEWS

CHANGE IS IN THE NATURE OF THINGS.

For your next visit we will surprise you with some news, starting from the interior to the outdoor area. The old Traditional Rooms have given way to modern Junior Suites with French windows that allow light to enter and illuminate the environment, elegant wooden interiors, tasteful furniture and ash and larch floors.

As for the exterior, on the new terrace we have created an exclusive place for adults where you can enjoy peace and relaxation, kissed by the sun. And the awe-inspiring landscape is included!

“ AT THE GASSERHOF NATURE IS OMNIPRESENT: YOU CAN FEEL IT AND BREATHE IT. ”

IN THE SUN OR IN THE SHADE, BUT ALWAYS COMFORTABLE AT GASSERHOF

Sitting outdoors with sunglasses and your sun hat, cocktail in hand: the true essence of summer! To practice the art of doing nothing on our terrace, on the "Platzl", as we call it. You can also sip your drink in the shade under the new pergola...

WINE

THE PLEASURE OF WINE AT THE GASSERHOF:
A FULL, SWEET,
SEDUCTIVE TASTE

Dinner becomes an unforgettable experience, if it is accompanied by the right wine, the perfect flavour enhancer. Gasserhof celebrates their passion for red wine, starting from the local ones, expressing the essence of the Isarco Valley. Those wishing to embark on a sensorial journey can sample wines from all over South Tyrol. Our tip: take part in a tasting. Here, in a pleasant setting, you can discuss each vintage, with their varying nuances of taste.

ANDREAS AND ALEX GOLLER: TWO BROTHERS, ONE PASSION

Together they are unbeatable. Andreas brings the experience, Alex the liveliness of young people, completing each other. Their passion for wine came when Andreas and Alex are still young, when they start helping out in the family restaurant. After graduating from the Kaiserhof Hotelier Institute in Merano, Andreas moved to St. Moritz to join the master sommelier Benjamin Wolf. After two winter seasons he becomes an apprentice of Fabrice Kieffer, one of the best world master chefs. Subsequently, he served as sommelier for the five-star Vigilius Mountain Resort in Lana and, together with his friend and waiter/manager Johannes Steiner, won the Gault Millau Award for "Best Service in South Tyrol". Winter 2018/2019 sees him engaged in a new challenge: chef de salle at the Interpalpen Hotel Tyrol.

Alex completes his apprenticeship at Hotel Castel, a five-star hotel in Tyrol, where he stayed for four years, a couple of which in the two-Michelin-star restaurant Trenkerstube. In the same period Andreas is also employed at Castel.

Today the two brothers are an inseparable couple. As restaurant manager and sommelier, they are not only master of the art of service, but also excellent wine advisers.
